"TEACHING AND LEADING THE LAST BACKPACK GENERATION: CHANGING WORLD, CHANGING STUDENTS"

15th March 2017
7:30 pm

at FORUM Geesseknäppchen
organized by LAML in collaboration with the IFEN

This thought-provoking discussion looks at our new world and what it requires of our schools and, ultimately, our students. This talk will focus on how we must change the way we lead, teach, reach, motivate, and prepare our students. We will focus on our role as educational leaders, policymakers, and parents. Is your school, your classroom, your home ready for today's student?

Description: Cette conférence examine le monde actuel et ce qu'il exige de nos écoles et lycées, ainsi que de nos élèves. L'exposé se concentrera sur la façon dont nous devons changer notre manière d'enseigner, d'apprendre, respectivement de motiver et de préparer nos élèves. Nous nous concentrerons sur notre rôle en tant qu'enseignants, décideurs du monde éducatif et parents. Votre école, votre salle de classe, votre maison sont-elles prêtes pour l'élève d'aujourd'hui?

Conférence en anglais avec traduction simultanée en français et en allemand

"Genius comes in all shapes, colors, genders, and ethnicities. And it does not fit on a rubric. We should not limit our learners to what we think is possible."
